

7/21/87 letter in Daily Advertiser	Cover letter he very existence of the union is in imminent danger	our national existence safety of all; our...safety mutual is evident
diversity of prejudices and supposed interests ; personal interests	interest or interests (4x in cover letter) rights prosperity
in a work of such magnitude	the magnitude of the sacrifice; inferiour magnitude in consequence of; degradation of our national character and consequence	the consequences into society
	most ardent wish
MAKES SENSE THAT HAMILTON MADE NO REFERENCE TO AMITY AS NO MAJOR COMPROMISES YET REACHED	spirit of amity and of that mutal deference liberty
the object was worthy of an experiment; the direct object of which is the abridgement of their own power	the object be obtained happiness must depend
these considerations; do not seem to admit of doubt; occasioned no doubt,	will doubtless consider local views	our view political situation (situation 2x in cover letter) these evils are so obvious	It is obviously to be expected
so serious a posture	seriously and deeply impressed on our mind any body of men ; a body specially appointed; an established body; a body to whose councils America has, in a great measure, entrusted its future fate	body of men on points

necessary to render it adequate; to support those establishments which are necessary to the public tranquillity; the necessary powers	Hence the necessity of a different organization facts and circumstances	situations and circumstances the general sense of America	true American calculated to impress the people	deeply impressed on our minds parties unfriendly to the measures of t	friends of our country that country so dear to us all perhaps (2x)
will frustrate the hope	we hope general stagnation of commerce	commerce own power; destitute of the necessary	power these considerations	consideration long seen
MAKES SENSE THAT HAMILTON MADE NO REFERENCE TO AMITY AS NO MAJOR COMPROMISES YET REACHED	mutual deference and concession
necessary to render it adequate; re necessary to the public tranquillity; of the necessary powers	the necessity of