

Cover letter	Hamilton at NY Convention June 20 our national existence safety of all; our...safety	a wish for the safety of his country mutual is evident
interest or interests (4x in cover letter) interest and safety; greatest Interest of every true american; particular interest	general interests of the Union; their own local interests rights prosperity
the magnitude of the sacrifice; inferiour magnitude the consequences	rejection of the Constitution may involve most fatal consequences into society
most ardent wish	a wish for the safety of his country spirit of amity and of that mutal deference	spirit of accommodation liberty	I hope we shall never sacrifice our liberties the object be obtained	an examination of the objects happiness	unhappy embarrassments must depend	does not depend will doubtless consider	nor accept doubtful surmises; Let us consider; every prudent man will consider our view	our view
political situation (situation 2x in cover letter)	our situation; citical situation It is obviously
"to be expected"	might be expected seriously and deeply impressed on our mind	serious consideration body of men	every member of this body on points of	precise point; a delicate point; point at which Hence the necessity of a different organziation	Hence there have ever been; necessity of a firm union situations and circumstances	circumstances of our country true American	true (3x)

"deeply impressed on our minds"	minds of the committee, that sober impression friends of our country	our country (4x) that country so dear to us all	country (8x) perhaps (2x)	perhaps we hope	I hope
regulating of commerce	regulation of commerce power	power 17x
this important consideration	deserve serious consideration long seen	How have we seen "mutual deference and concession" the necessity of	the necessity of a firm union