

Cover letter	Hamilton at NY Convention 6/25/1788*
our national existence	national 2x safety of all; our...safety	safety of the people 2x mutual	mutual
is evident
interest or interests (4x in cover letter) interest and safety; greatest Interest of every true american; particular interest	interest 11x secure all rights	secure the rights prosperity	the prosperity of our country.
the magnitude of the sacrifice; inferiour magnitude	the particular must be sacrificed to the general interest; sacrifice 5x
the consequences	consequently entering into society most ardent wish	most 3x spirit of amity and of that mutal deference	spirit; mutual Share of Liberty	the perfect balance between liberty and power the object be obtained	object 5x freedom and happiness	happiest possible mode must depend	must 6x; does not depend will doubtless consider	calmly consider; consider 3x our view	view 2x
political situation (situation 2x in cover letter)	situation 4x It is obviously to be expected seriously and deeply impressed on our mind	mind body of men	body 2x
on points of	on this point Hence the necessity of a different organziation	the necessity of situations and circumstances	situation 4x; circumstance true American friends of our country	country that country so dear to us all perhaps (2x)
we hope	hope

regulating of commerce
power	power 6x
this important consideration	This consideration long seen	have seen mutual deference and concession	mutual

* First speech on 6/25 (Francis Childs edition)