

Cover letter*Cincinnati 1786 circular

our national existence	national honor
extensive trust	In pursuance of this trust ; we trust
interest or interests (4x in cover letter)	interests of the institution secure all rights	right of election; right of the State Societies
prosperity	owe her future peace, respectability and prosperity
the magnitude of the sacrifice ; inferiour magnitude	so many sacrifices
into society	the Society
spirit of amity and of that mutal deference	the spirit of both these resolutions
liberty	supporters of her Liberty , her Laws and her Government.
the object be obtained	the objects of this letter; the objects intended to be communicated by this letter; the objects of the Society
freedom and happiness	happiness and the future dignity; tranquility and happiness of this Country
must depend	must depend
will doubtless consider	we doubt not, who will no doubt
our view	whose views ; the views
It is obviously	This obvious idea
Hence the necessity of a different organization	an absolute necessity ; impressed with the necessity ; so essentially necessary
deeply impressed on our minds	who will no doubt be properly impressed with the necessity
friends of our country	any whose views are not unfriendly
that country so dear to us all	tranquility and happiness of this Country
perhaps (2x)	perhaps we might say
power of making war, peace, and treaties	empower its delegates,
consideration	any additional considerations ; will be considered
consolidation of our Union	Union and national honor so essentially necessary; favorable to the preservation of that Union